

Music Policy (Community Radio Codes of Practice Code 5)

Background

Community broadcasters are renowned for supporting new, local, independent and particularly Australian music. Many musicians have had their first airplay and interviews on our stations. We are in a unique position to play and engage with a broad range of musical styles. Our support of the music industry and diverse music played is one of the key reasons people listen to community radio.

The 2008 McNair Audience Research Survey shows that two key reasons people listen to community radio stations are:

- 'They play Australian music/support local artists'
- 'Specialist music or information programs'

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that Fraser Coast Community Radio Inc

- continues to play a diverse range of music throughout all of our programming,
- supports local (Fraser Coast + Wide Bay) musicians, and
- complies with the 25% Australian music requirement of the Codes by aiming for 30% Australian music across all general programming. This allows for specialist programs (music and/or talk based) which may not be able to meet the 25% quota (see #2 under Policy below).

Policy

1. Broadcasters are encouraged to provide a wide range of musical styles while taking into account the station's aims and objectives and the individual program's aims and objectives.
2. All programs will endeavor to ensure that of the total music played throughout a program, at least 30% of this is Australian unless:
  - a. The program's aim is to focus on music or culture other than Australian
  - b. The musical style of a program is of a nature that does not have a high instance of Australian recordings.
3. In the cases of 2.a and 2.b, prior approval must be given by the Programming Committee for a program to qualify for these exemptions.
4. The Music Coordinator under the direction of the Programming Director will arrange for all Australian recordings that are the property of the station to be visibly identified as Australian.
5. All presenters are required to complete and hand to the Music Coordinator a music log sheet after each program.
6. The Music Coordinator under the direction of the Programming Director will conduct an audit of and report in writing on Australian music content on a monthly basis.
7. Presenters are encouraged, within the confines of the sponsorship framework, to promote events where local musicians are featured.
8. Presenters must not make representations to record companies or other music suppliers on behalf of Fraser Coast Community Radio Inc unless prior consent has been given by the Management Committee, or under delegation by the Program Director or Music Coordinator.

9. Fraser Coast Community Radio Inc / individual presenters will not accept any form of payment in cash or in-kind, in return for providing airplay or promotion of music, except under standard sponsorship arrangements
